

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

GREAT PUBLIC SCHOOLS: A BASIC RIGHT AND OUR RESPONSIBILITY

Parent Checklist

Welcome to your child's school! The purpose of this checklist is to help make your visit during American Education Week a meaningful experience. Listed below are example behaviors and interactions to look for while observing your child engaged in learning.

- My child is prepared for class (paper, writing tools, etc.).
- My child has completed his/her homework assignment(s).
- My child demonstrates good listening skills (looking at the speaker, answering questions, taking notes when appropriate).
- My child follows directions.
- My child asks for help if he/she does not understand the directions.
- My child has the opportunity to talk with others about what he/she is learning.
- My child seems to enjoy learning.
- My child is able to demonstrate what he/she has learned.

Consider discussing this information with your child's teacher during your next parent/teacher/student conference.
