

Coaching Guidelines

The Reader:

- Holds the book.
- Points to each word as she reads it (Levels Y–G).
- Tries to figure out a word she doesn't know.
- Asks for help if the word is too hard.

The Coach:

- Holds the logsheet.
- Listens to every word the reader reads.
- If the reader makes a mistake, the coach:
 - Says, "Oops! Try that again."
 - Says, "Try making the first sound."
 - Says, "Try looking at the picture for clues."
 - Tells the reader the word.
- Helps the reader (if necessary) write the titles on the logsheet after the reader reads the book. (Just one title for each Step—15 minutes of reading).
- Signs the log sheet.
- Sees the good things the reader does and says nice things to the reader.
