

Great Expectations: Helping your child with special needs succeed!

A free parent training conference for families of children with disabilities in the Baltimore-Metro region

A.M. Breakout Sessions

- * A System of Services for Young Children: Making the Extended IFSP Option for Families a Reality
- * Show Me the Money! Finding resources and money to pay for the things your child needs
- * Healthy & Ready: Health Care Transition & Self Advocacy
- * Community Works: Locating and hiring college students studying in health related fields, to work as caregivers for children and young adults with developmental disabilities

Free Continental Breakfast & Lunch

Resource Displays / BCPS Parent-Mobile

P.M. Breakout Sessions

- * Understanding High School Assessments and Graduation Requirements for students with IEPs
- * Parent's Basic Rights in the Special Education Process
- * "A Parent and an Author!" Learning to write social stories to help your child achieve success in social situations
- * Creating Resilience in your Child or Teen with Behavioral Challenges

Saturday,
October 10, 2009
9 am—3 pm

New Town High School
4931 New Town Blvd.
Owings Mills, MD 21117

Registration is required and limited
Please call by October 1.

Contact the Resource Center at 410-887-5443 or email
cbishop2@bcps.org

DOOR PRIZES!