PERSONNEL: Classified

Status Change: Evaluation, General

The Board of Education subscribes to the principle of personnel administration that an employee has a right to know how he/she is progressing in his/her present position. Only then can he/she be recognized for his/her performance or encouraged to improve. Since important personnel actions including promotion, discipline or discharge are contingent upon the quality of prior evaluations, the function of evaluations must produce an accurate reflection of the employee's worth and contribution to the system.

The Board of Education delegated to the supervisory staff the responsibility of evaluating the effectiveness of all classified personnel as a means to insure quality control and apprisement of results to all employees.
