

Message to Families – February 25, 2021

As we move into the month of March, Baltimore County Public Schools is looking forward to welcoming back our students whose families have chosen hybrid learning in Phases III and IV. As a reminder, students in Phases III and IV whose families chose hybrid learning may begin as early as the dates outlined below. Schools will provide a letter with each child’s start date and cohort/group.

Changes to All Students’ Schedules

To give school staff the time to plan and prepare for students’ return, we will provide a modified schedule (see Table 2) as indicated for all students in that phase during the week before the start of hybrid learning (see Table 1).
