14th annual Meet the Primes event to connect small, minority-owned businesses with subcontracting opportunities and resources

What: Small and minority-owned businesses are invited to participate in the 14th annual Meet the Primes event. This free event is hosted by Baltimore County Public Schools, Baltimore County government and agencies, and the Baltimore Metropolitan Council. This networking event is designed to connect small and minority-owned businesses with more than 120 prime bidders who offer subcontracting work opportunities, and with government and education agencies who offer bidding opportunities and resources to facilitate small business growth. Representatives of small and minority-owned businesses are welcome to walk in without pre-registering and are encouraged to bring capability statements and references.

When: Wednesday, October 12, 2022, from 8 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Where: Maryland State Fairgrounds Exhibition Hall
2200 York Rd., Timonium 21093

Background: The 2019 Meet the Primes event attracted more than 700 representatives from small and minority-owned businesses to meet with prime bidders from more than 150 government agencies, private companies, and other entities. (The event was not held live in 2020 or 2021 due to the pandemic.)

For more information about Meet the Primes, contact Robert Ball at rball@bcps.org or 443-809-9390 or contact Carla Tucker at ctucker@baltimorecountymd.gov or 410-887-3119.
