BCPS, County officials to cut ribbon for new Rossville Elementary School

Ceremonial event marks first ribbon-cutting for a new BCPS school since 2018

What: BCPS Superintendent Dr. Darryl L. Williams and Baltimore County Executive Johnny Olszewski will join members of the Board of Education of Baltimore County, Baltimore County elected officials, and state dignitaries in formally cutting the ribbon on the new Rossville Elementary School. Providing nearly 109,000 square feet of state-of-the-art learning space, the new school, which opened in August, was built to help meet the educational needs of the fast-growing communities of northeast Baltimore County. Built for $56 million, the new building provides room for 735 seats and currently enrolls 621 students. Baltimore County last celebrated the opening of a new school in 2018 with a ribbon-cutting at Honeygo Elementary School in Perry Hall.

When: Tuesday, October 25, at 11:00 a.m.

Where: 7649 Gum Spring Road, Baltimore 21237
