BCPS student leaders to host 5K Walk and Community Fair in honor of former staff advisor Community invited to participate, support

What: Baltimore County Student Councils and Baltimore County Junior Councils are co-hosting the Nora Murray Memorial Walk, a 5K walk and community fair to support FINISH Sarcoma (a rare cancer). The event is being held in memory of Catherine “Nora” Murray, the former coordinator of BCPS student leadership programs and a co-founder of FINISH Sarcoma. The community is invited to participate. Online registration is $30 for adults (ages 18+), $15 for students (ages 6–17), and free for children under age 6. Free T-shirts will be provided to all paid participants who register by March 30. In-person registration on the day of the event will be available by cash or check only. All proceeds will benefit FINISH Sarcoma to support sarcoma patients and their families, sarcoma research funding, and promoting sarcoma awareness.

When: Saturday, April 15, 2023, from 9–11:30 a.m.

Where: Hereford High School stadium
17301 York Rd., Parkton 21120
