BCPS community invited to participate in upcoming “Meet the Superintendent” events

Six public meetings scheduled for June and July

This press release was updated to include two new meeting locations and additional Spanish interpretation services.*

TOWSON, MD. – Members of the BCPS community are invited to participate in six upcoming forums to meet and learn more about Baltimore County’s incoming schools superintendent, Dr. Myriam Yarbrough.

During the community meetings, Dr. Yarbrough will share information about key priorities for the upcoming school year, hear from members of the Team BCPS community, and answer questions. Dr. Yarbrough begins her tenure as BCPS superintendent on July 1, 2023.

The dates and locations of the six community events are as follows. Each meeting will be held from 6-7 p.m.:

- Thursday, June 15 – New Town High School media center, 4931 New Town Blvd., Owings Mills 21117
- Wednesday, June 21 – George Washington Carver Center for Arts and Technology cafeteria, 938 York Rd., Towson 21204
- Thursday, June 22 – Dundalk/Sollers Point Technical High School in the Sollers Café, 1901 Delvale Ave., Dundalk 21222
- Wednesday, July 5 – Catonsville High School cafeteria, 421 Bloomsbury Ave., Catonsville 21228
- Thursday, July 6 – Perry Hall High School cafeteria, 4601 Ebenezer Rd., Baltimore 21236

- Monday, July 10 – Kenwood High School cafeteria, 501 Stemmers Run Rd., Essex 21221
- Thursday, July 13 – Loch Raven High School cafeteria, 1212 Cowpens Ave., Towson 21286
- Tuesday, July 18 – Randallstown High School cafeteria, 4000 Offutt Rd., Randallstown 21133

Spanish interpretation services will be available at the Catonsville, Carver, Dundalk/Sollers Point, Kenwood, Loch Raven, Randallstown, and New Town high school events.
