What is a Parent Surrogate?
A parent surrogate is an individual appointed by Baltimore County Public Schools (BCPS) to represent a student, in place of a parent in matters relating to the educational decision making process. A parent surrogate may represent students with disabilities in all matters related to identification, evaluation, provisions of services, and educational placement.

Who can be a Parent Surrogate?
The proposed parent surrogate qualifies if he/she:
- Is at least 21 years of age.
- Has no interest that conflicts with the interest of the student
- Has knowledge and skills that will ensure adequate representation of the student
- Is not employed by the school system or a public agency which is involved in the education and/or care of the student.

Persons employed by BCPS, are not eligible to serve as a surrogate for BCPS students. School volunteers, and spouses or friends of BCPS employees are eligible and encouraged to serve as surrogates.

How can I become a Parent Surrogate?
BCPS will host training for persons interested in becoming or already serving as a Parent Surrogate (see information on the top of this flier)
